

Nowadays when we say spa we mean relaxation, indulgence and an escape from our day to day worries. Its origin however has a much deeper meaning and value: THERAPY. In Greece the nature itself has provided the elements required and Medical Spa won worldwide recognition. Specialized itineraries including various therapeutically methods, such as thermal springs, salt treatment, mud baths and many more, offering healing effects to a various medical conditions... and let this be an overall wellbeing experience in Greece.

