

Once the drink of the Olympian Gods, Greek wine is almost as old as Greece itself. From the festivities of Dionysos, god of wine, to the symbolic use of red wine in the Greek Orthodox Church, wine has always been a part of native's every day life for centuries. Exceptional scrumptious paths travels you around Greece, giving you the chance to reveal history through the tasting of this divine drink.

Behold the making of wine from the vineyard to obsolescence and sense the importance of each productive stage.

Visit traditional wineries and find out more about Greek varieties, enriching your knowledge around wine.

Meat the people behind the making of Greek wine, and follow up their story uncovering the "professional" secrets.

Stay in picturesque lodgings and gain the opportunity to experience the Greek way of life through local products and gastronomy.

